

The London Sash Window Company

Camberwell SE5

This house in Camberwell needed simple renovation to sash windows and French doors.

Procedure: overhaul and draught proofing

French doors at the back of the property were draught proofed and fitted with new security bolts. The large sash windows in the sitting room were overhauled and draught proofed to improve functionality and insulation. Insurance rate security locks were fitted as part of the service.

