

The London Sash Window Company

Ealing W5

A major renovation carried out by a larger property developer to transform four large Edwardian houses into modern family homes while at the same time retaining the original features.

Procedure: replacement

All windows and exterior doors were fully replaced with new double glazed sash windows and French doors. The new windows were full draught proofed, painted inside and out and fitted with polished chrome window furniture and insurance rated security locks.

